

Programs

Knowledgeable speakers present informative programs on a variety of topics each month from September through May.

Time: Second Thursdays, 7:00 p.m.

Location: Ludlow Room, Fort Collins Lincoln Center, 417 W. Magnolia St.

The annual silent auction is held in October. The December meeting features a potluck meal and member's slide show.

Outings

Field Trips and Bird Surveys

Experienced naturalists lead a wide variety of day trips to Larimer and Weld counties most weekends. FCAS conducts monthly bird surveys at Fossil Creek Reservoir and Bobcat Ridge Natural Area.

Expeditions

FCAS offers overnight trips, multi-day canoe trips, and excursions to other countries such as Panama.

Christmas Bird Counts

FCAS coordinates annual bird counts in Fort Collins and Loveland each December.

Birdathon

Our annual spring fundraiser assigns teams to a 24-hour marathon of counting species!

Education

Classes and Workshops

FCAS offers classes and workshops on bird watching, wildflowers, gardening for wildlife, and other subjects.

Scholarship Fund

Our scholarship fund supports experiences in environmental education for young people and educators.

Public Outreach

FCAS works to increase nature appreciation and awareness of environmental issues.

Conservation

Advocacy

FCAS supports Audubon Colorado legislative efforts. The FCAS Conservation Committee circulates petitions, attends meetings, and writes comments, letters, and editorials for local, regional, and national issues.

Stewardship

FCAS adopted the Fossil Creek Important Bird Area and Fossil Creek Natural Area.
