

Northern Colorado Weavers Guild is a nonprofit organization founded in 1973. Now as then, our primary purpose is to perpetuate the skills and craftsmanship of fiber arts, among ourselves, and the public.

Monthly meetings are held the first Saturday of the month, September through June, at Mount Olive Lutheran Church, 3411 South Taft, Loveland. The 9am meeting includes a short business segment, 'Show and Tell' and a program related to fiber arts. Workshops are often scheduled for the afternoon.

Interest groups in various aspects of fiber, such as spinning, weaving and knitting are scheduled during the month. Skill levels range from those newly interested to professional artists and teachers.

Membership dues are $25.00 per year for individual and /or families. Dues are reduced to $12.50 for new members joining after January first.

TEACHING and SHARING

We are proud to present COLORADO WEAVERS DAY 2006, May 19 at Colorado State University. This bi-annual event invites fiber artists of all media to "Live, Learn and Celebrate." Additional information is available on our website.

FIBER CELEBRATION 2006, our juried international show is in its 32nd year. It provides a well-publicized display for fiber artists and encourages our members to compete with their peers. EDUCATION IN THE COMMUNITY favors "hands-on" demonstrations. We are in schools, elementary through college. We have participated at parks, libraries, shows, Centennial Village, Estes Park Children's Tent, and have even 'Ridden the Art Train.'
